Shen Changyu leading Chinese government delegation attending the 54th WIPO Assemblies

申长雨率团出席WIPO成员国大会第54届系列会议

he 54th series of meetings of the Assemblies of the Member States of WIPO were held in Geneva, Switzerland on September 22. Shen Changyu, the Commissioner of China's State Intellectual Property Office leading Chinese government delegation attended the meeting. Shen Changyu made a general speech on behalf of Chinese government delegation. He said China would keep supporting WIPO, deepening cooperation with WIPO member states, promoting worldwide innovation and intellectual property protection, and contributing to the improvement and development of the international intellectual property system.

Wu Hailong, the Ambassador of Chinese Permanent Mission of Geneva, Yan Xiaohong, the Deputy Director of China National Press and Publication Administration of Radio, Film and Television (the State Copyright Bureau), and responsible officers from China State Administration for Industry and Commerce also attended the meeting. Chinese government delegation consisted of Foreign Ministry, State Administration for Industry and Commerce, Press and Publication Administration of Radio, Film and Television, State Intellectual Property Office, the Permanent Mission in Geneva and Intellectual Property Department of Hongkong Special Adminis-

At the meeting, Shen Changyu introduced the latest development of Intellectual Property in China this year, disclosed information about the implementation of the national intellectual property strategy, intellectual property legal system, creation and application of intellectual property, and notified that China had officially approved the Beijing Treaty on Audiovisual Perfor-

Shen Changyu highly valued WIPO's Director General, Francis Gurry's report. He pointed out that, as a specialized agency of intellectual property of UN, WIPO had always been committed to improve global intellectual property system and achieved outstanding results. This year, China and WIPO had been working together and made tremendous achievement in projects such as opening WIPO Beijing Office, organizing the international seminar of Hague Agreement and the advanced roving seminar of the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), as well as promoting intellectual property system in China.

Shen Changyu gave opinions about intellectual property affairs under the framework of WIPO. He believed that we should fully play and extend the role of PCT system as the existing international patent filing system in order to make it more efficient and of high quality; appropriately balance different development levels of different countries in different stages, and fully meet the needs of small and micro enterprises; give full attention to the concerns of developing countries in WIPO "Development Agenda" and continue to provide strong support for its implementation; insist to promote intellectual property and commission on genetic resources, traditional knowledge and folklore among governments as to conclude an international legal instrument.

Shen Changyu also invited Liang Jiali, the Director of Intellectual Property Department of Hongkong Special Administrative Region giving an additional speech about Hongkong Intellectual Property work.

Shen Changyu also had a meeting with Gurry and both signed a bilateral cooperation agreement; met with Wu Hailong, the Ambassador of Chinese Permanent Mission of Geneva; attended the 3rd Commissioner Meeting of Intellectual Property Office in BRIC; held bilateral talks with directors of Intellectual Property department from more than 10 countries and regional organizations, such as Russia, EU internal market coordination Bureau, Australia, Canada, Chile, Iran, Israel, Kazakhstan, Morocco, Sweden, Ethiopia and Poland, and reached a number of cooperation agreement.

Zhang Maoyu, the Deputy Director of the Patent Office of China's State Intellectual Property Office attended the above activities.

Putting on the most beautiful wedding dress for Chinese bribes 为中国新娘披上最美嫁衣

66 I hope that every bride can wear the most beautiful Chinese wedding dress." Says Guo Pei, known as "the No.1 China's haute couture", the general manager and chief designer of Beijing Rose Square haute couture company (hereinafter referred to Rose Square).

"Some people don't find Chinese wedding dress pretty. That's not because they are completely indifferent about the traditional beauty, but they haven't yet experienced the real charm of Chinese wedding dress." As much as beautiful, smart, dignified and elegant, Guo Pei's Chinese wedding dress not only draws lessons from fashion trends overseas but also absorbs Chinese traditional elements without blindly copying. In her opinion, the customized wedding dress containing unique design is the perfect carrier of national culture radiate vitality

"The traditional Chinese wedding dress is Chinese heritage treasure, a perfect combination of the cultural sense and marriage happiness. The language of Chinese design is like the neckline of traditional clothes, focusing on the And Manner. Instead of imitating foreign works, it is better to learn to use our own design language and be creative." Guo Pei's Chinese wedding dress is the

The intellectual property formed from her creative design gives her more and more freedom to create and rapidly elevates the company's brand value. According to reports, Rose Square currently has a designer team of more than 80 people, and has submitted more than 160 design patent applications. More than 50 of them have been already granted.

"China's haute couture just starts, but we have our own unique characters because we do not imitate anyone else." As Guo Pei says, haute couture is a "single product" industry without any repetition. Presently, Rose Square produces more than 2,000 sets of haute couture annually, including the famous Beijing Olympics awards dress and costumes for CCTV Spring Festival Evening Show. Well-know in the industry for a while, Guo Pei has a more ambitious dreams. "Not only putting on Chinese wedding dress for Chinese brides, but also teaching more people to be able to make it. Forward the beautiful folk tradition to the next generations while promote the industrial development." Crossing through the ancient history and a brand new future, intellectual property evokes the unique glory of Chinese wedding dress.
